Final, Final Newsletter

No Really.

We mean it this time.

Coaches Corner

There really isn't anything from Ryan – we just thought he did such a nice job speaking at the Banquet that we wanted to spotlight him a bit. Here's to you, Ryan. And we were so glad to hear in that wonderful speech of yours that you will live to coach the Orcas another day!

Banquet News

We are neither thoughtless nor cruel, just hopelessly muddled and forgetful. And what we forgot was to thank the following people at the banquet:

Barb Johnson for purchasing and helping with the Girls Invitational decorations.

Marda Mills for helping with the coaches' gifts and securing the VFW Hall.

Mike Terrell for agreeing to be our second Park District Rep.

So here's a belated but very sincere thanks to the three of you for helping to make this a great season!

Video News

For those of you who missed the Banquet, the video was smashing. And Neil Martin has now added some Classic and City footage and will have the videos available soon at the Tennis Club. The cost is $10. If you were unable to sign up for the video at the Banquet, just email Neil at: jmmartin89@hotmail.com and he'll happily burn a copy for you.

Loyal Orca Awards

The Loyal Orca Awards were given to: Justine Sieber and David Gerstle. We congratulate them and thank them for being role models to the younger Orcas.

Water Polo News

It seems that Erin and David's excellent water polo adventure was quite the success so . . . look for news about water polo in next year's registration packets!

Car-X

So I was listening to the White Sox game just before I started writing this and a Car-X commercial came on and I finally realized what Car-X meant – it's like RX! I never got that before. No this doesn't have anything to do with swimming or water polo or any other reasonable subject but I was just so happy to finally get it. This from the woman who thought Glen Campbell was talking about a football player – “And the Wichita lineman . . . “

Comments? Suggestions?

If you have any comments, suggestions, thoughts about either the season that just ended or next year's, please email them to the Tennis Club's Ginger Boyce (gingerb52@aol.com).

Financial News I

We're hoping they'll make it through one more winter but then we're optimistic sorts. Our lane lines are getting scraggly, breaking up into pieces each time we take them in and out of the water. They will probably cost between $1500 and $1700. A portion of this year's fundraising will be set aside for this expense.

We are also looking to fix the outdoor speaker system. So if you are handy in this area and wouldn't mind lending your expertise, please let us know.

Financial News II

Once all of our expenses and income are recorded AND we balance with the bank statement, a final report will be emailed to all families. We are hopeful that this will take place at the end of September or beginning of October.

January Kick-Off Meeting

Enjoy some goods baked by the Coaches (and no David's mom won't send any Salvador Dali-looking mess this time – Janice Martin, I promise I'm going to bake something decent for you to make up for your “win” at the cakewalk) and join us for next year's Kick-Off Meeting to be held in January. An email will be sent to notify you of the meeting. If there is a job you have been just dying to try, that would an opportunity to let us know! Of course, any time prior to that meeting would be work, too.
